The arcades and laneways are just one of the many UNIQUE hidden gems of Glenferrie. An exciting, edgy place to meet, eat, drink and exchange ideas, they are an incubator for new emerging business and cultural trends. Join us in loving the Don Arcade, Railway Laneway and Troubadour Arcade, for a day of live art work, music, food and some of the best coffee in the precinct. Watch street artists in action (next to twelve b), listen to great tunes from all eras including jazz, folk, 70's with DJ's turning the lanes of Glenferrie into the lanes of SOHO (London and New York).
